

Albert C. Black, Jr.
President and Chief Executive Officer

Albert C. Black, Jr.

President and Chief Executive Officer

As President & CEO, Albert Black founded On-Target in 1982 and leads the company's strategy development, establishes company goals, manages strategic political and social involvement, and oversees the development of corporate culture. Albert's primary responsibilities are to assure the growth in profitability of the firm, while guiding the transformation of the company's management team. He has successfully guided the company from a two-person start-up to an organization of over 190 professionals.

Albert brings extensive entrepreneurial experience and continues to initiate new business ventures that support On-Target's mission. He holds an M.B.A. from Southern Methodist University and received his B.A. in general studies from University of Texas at Dallas.