

Melvin Hider
Director of Safety and Security

Melvin Hider

Director of Safety and Security

Since joining On-Target in 1992, Melvin Hider has worked in a variety of key roles in operations and facilities management and is well versed on security needs from the top-level view down to day-to-day functionality. Melvin currently serves as our Director of Safety and Security and is continually evaluating ways to increase safety and security for the company and its customers. Melvin is responsible for safety compliance and training, organizing security initiatives, and managing and maintaining all facilities.

Melvin earned his B.S. in industrial technology and minored in business administration from Texas A&M University at Commerce.